Crossings 2011

Diploma in Dance Showcase

Crossings 2011 continues to highlight the Department of Dance's commitment to produce dance artists for the world stage. The evening's programme will showcase both Western and Asian inspired dance works. This time round, Larry Clark from Purchase College, State University of New York, will present his new work "J.C." - On The Other Side choreographed on NAFA's students during a 3 week residency in January this year. The programme will also include Syncretitude by Canadian Peter Chin as well as Albert Tiong remounting excerpts of his work Checkmate. Jamaludin Jail will also recreate his Point of Tao. The performance will display the versatility of NAFA's student dancers to cross genres which is truly a hallmark of the dance programme. "CROSSINGS 2011" continues to reflect both rich traditions as well as an adventurous spirit that define and drive all who work within this institution. Looking back but moving forward, we cross the boundaries of time and tradition.
