

Artist Talk

Topic: Talk Expansion possibilities with thoughts on line of control

Speaker: Li Cassidy-Peet

Date: Fri, 16 June 2006

Time: 14.30 – 16.00pm

Venue: Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts

NAFA Campus1, Wing B

Headquarters & School of Visual Arts Building

#03-08

80 Bencoolen Street

Singapore 189655

Admission: Free

Synopsis:

Li Cassidy-Peet is an artist from London, living now in Singapore who will be talking about her work in mixed media from experimental/innovative large scale drawings, installation and video in contemporary art practice concerned with human behaviour from large scale demolition in urban space and its effects from displacement and loss, life, death and war to a site-specific drawing residency on sub culture.

About the Artist:

Li Cassidy-Peet was born in Wentorf/Hamburg Germany but lives and works in Singapore. She received her BA (Hons) Fine Art from Goldsmiths College, University of London. She has held several solo and group exhibitions namely; 2004 Reinvigorate, The Horse Hospital, London; 2000 ENDINGS+, Kings Cross, London; 2000 Crowning Glories, The German Gymnasium, London; and 2001 Spread The Word, Henley Festival of Music and The Arts; 2001 Permanent Collection, The Centre of Attention, London; 2001 Myth and Logic Stroud House Gallery, Stroud; 2000 13 Artists:13 Films, The Centre of Attention, London; 1999 Camberwell Artsweek 5, London; and 1998 Bayonet, Stroud House Gallery, Stroud.