INTERNSHIP & INDUSTRY COLLABORATIONS

At NAFA's School of 3D Design, you will gain critical skill sets that prime you in your chosen field across distinctive industry collaborations.

Diploma in Design (Furniture and 3D Crafts): Explore real-world experiences through collaborations with established entities like Singapore Airlines, Lam Chuan, Semula-Asia and internships with organisations like Tatler Singapore, On Cheong Jewellery and Mokko Wood Studio.

Diploma in Design (Interior and Spatial): Delve into real-world scenarios through partnerships with leading entities like Resorts World Singapore, National University Hospital (NUH) and community projects such as Ang Chin Moh Funeral Directors. Gain practical experience through internships with notable organisations such as PICO and NUH.

Diploma in Design (Landscape and Architecture): Immerse in practical training through collaborations with prominent local bodies like the Public Utilities Board and NParks. Enhance professional skills with internships at Cicada and CPG Corporation.

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Biophilic Design: The programme is co-developed with CPG Corporation, drawing on their extensive biophilic design expertise. Unique to the curriculum is the work-integrated learning programme, co-created with industry partners, providing tailored industry immersion through structured training and mentorship.

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Design Practice: Take part in high-impact projects in partnership with the Government Technology Agency and National Healthcare Group. Enhance your professional experience with internships at Visa and DBS Bank.

Showcase your creativity in esteemed local design competitions like the SPADE Design Awards, Nippon Paint Young Designer Award and IKEA Singapore's Young Designer Award. Global recognition awaits with the Taiwan International Student Design Competition, Akoya Pearl Falco Jewellery Design and the Crowbar Awards.

STUDENT LIFE

Dive into the NAFA life—where learning meets fun!

At NAFA, student life is an invigorating blend of learning, self-expression and fun. From the NAFA Makers' Market to International Student's Night, our lively calendar keeps your campus life engaging and exciting. Join student-led clubs, such as the Basketball Club and K-Pop Dance Club to bond with like-minded peers and network within the creative student community. Through our Student Leader Training Camp, you will gain leadership skills and become role models within our community.

OVERSEAS ENGAGEMENT

Our enriching student exchange programmes and international collaborative projects will immerse you in expanded classroom learning.

Among these is our partnership with King Mongkut's University of Technology Thonburi (KMUTT) in Thailand. This has led to the annual furnitureOrigins exhibition, furniture design workshops and exhibitions by students from both institutions. This venture teaches design entrepreneurship and helps students like you create international networks.

As a second-year Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Design Practice student, you will spend five to seven weeks at the University of the Arts London on an international placement to study with global practitioners and experts in design. During your stay in London, you will be exposed to the cultural richness of the city while gaining new insights into art and design at an international level.

CAREER PATHWAYS

NAFA's 3D Design programmes prepare you for dynamic careers in the creative industries. Further broaden your possibilities with our Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Design Practice or Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Biophilic Design programmes.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS) BIOPHILIC DESIGN

First of its kind in Asia, the three-year BA (Hons) Biophilic Design programme nurtures spatial designers for the future. Biophilic design aims to harmonise urban living with the natural world, through integrating natural materials into the built environment, enhancing human wellness. You will cultivate your skills in spatial design disciplines and learn to apply sustainable design practices that enhance energy efficiency and reduce environmental impact.

The NAFA-Industry Partnership: Through an interdisciplinary and practice-led curriculum developed in partnership with CPG Corporation—one of Asia’s leading infrastructure design and development firms—you will gain comprehensive professional training by engaging with industry experts and ensuring a comprehensive understanding of the industry, inculcated into your classroom learning.

Professional Immersion Through Our Work-integrated Learning Programme: In the final year of the programme, you will get the opportunity to experience tailored mentorship in a professional environment. Through day-to-day immersion in a real-world setting, you will gain an in-depth understanding of industry practices, build valuable connections, and enhance your design and project management skills.

Future-Focused Perspectives in Spatial Design Practice: Explore holistic design solutions for future challenges through biophilic design approaches. Draw from interdisciplinary spatial explorations to challenge current design practices for integrated indoor and outdoor environments.

COMMON CURRICULUM

The BA (Hons) Biophilic Design programme at NAFA focuses on specialised learning in a wide range of arts and design disciplines. At the same time, these programmes are complemented by the Common Curriculum, bringing together LASALLE and NAFA students in joint classes for the IN-depth module and the Career Skills module. These two components of the Common Curriculum, together with the Industry-based Learning module, are non-credit bearing graduation requirements for this programme.

- The IN-depth module develops interpretive and narrative skills, broadens interdisciplinary perspectives, and fosters collaborative skills, all while nurturing a deeper understanding of today’s complex world.
- The Career Skills module provides the essential soft and hard skills needed to navigate the professional world, from personal branding to effective communication.
- The Industry-based Learning module offers real-world experience, enabling the application of skills in a practical setting and to make industry connections.

INTERNSHIP & INDUSTRY COLLABORATIONS

Across distinctive industry collaborations, our students have collaborated with esteemed organisations such as BINHouse Indonesia, Binary Style, and local label MAX. TAN. Studio. Our students have also secured internships with leading companies such as Club 21, Prada, Island shop, Le Petit Society, GRAYE, and GINLEE Studio. With an industry-led approach, you will gain critical skill sets that prime you for the fashion industry.

Our community-centric initiatives with esteemed institutions, such as the Asian Civilisations Museum and NEFFUL International, ensure you are not just confined to the fashion runway. These projects empower you to weave fashion into broader narratives, integrating design, history, and culture, and gain opportunities to showcase your talent on esteemed platforms, including the Harper's BAZAAR Asia NewGen Fashion Award, Men's Folio Designer of the Year Award, and Arts Thread.

Here, it's more than just about participation; it's where your skills, knowledge, and flair converge to spotlight you as the next leading name in fashion.

STUDENT VOICES

Ow Ze Fei

Alumna, Diploma in Fashion Design

At NAFA, there are plenty of opportunities to experiment freely and express myself creatively in the process. With my lecturers as pillar of support, I learnt to accept and embrace criticism to improve my craft.

Radha Kashyap

Alumna, Diploma in Fashion Merchandising and Marketing

I think NAFA approaches art and design education the right way – a mix of idealism and realism. NAFA gives their students freedom to explore their own ideas but holds them accountable for the practicality of the idea, creating a good simulation of what the industry standards are.
