

Where Your Rhythm Finds its Soul

School of Dance connects you to a breadth of disciplines, aesthetics, communities, and cultures. Here, rigorous conservatory-style training meets Southeast Asia's cultural richness, empowering you to explore classical, contemporary, and intercultural forms with discipline, imagination, and purpose. Through performance, choreography, research, and collaboration, you will develop the artistry and versatility to shape the future of dance — on stage, in studios, and across creative industries.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a black long-sleeved crop top, stands in the foreground looking upwards. In the background, a large, abstract, blue-toned projection of a human figure is visible on a wall. The projection appears to be a stylized, possibly digital or painted, representation of a person in a dynamic pose, with a head that has a face-like pattern. The overall atmosphere is artistic and modern.

Diploma in Dance

Grounded in classical and contemporary techniques, this rigorous programme builds versatility and discipline through studio practice, industry learning, collaboration and interdisciplinary projects. It offers a Southeast Asian perspective on dance, nurturing artists who are technically strong, culturally rooted and creatively independent.

more information

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Performance Making

BAPM (FOIP) — a pathway to further performance programmes across Theatre, Dance and Arts Management.

This interdisciplinary degree is grounded in a Dance or Theatre specialism. Designed for bold and collaborative artist-makers, it challenges you to push boundaries and rethink how performance is created, presented, and experienced.

Who Is This For?

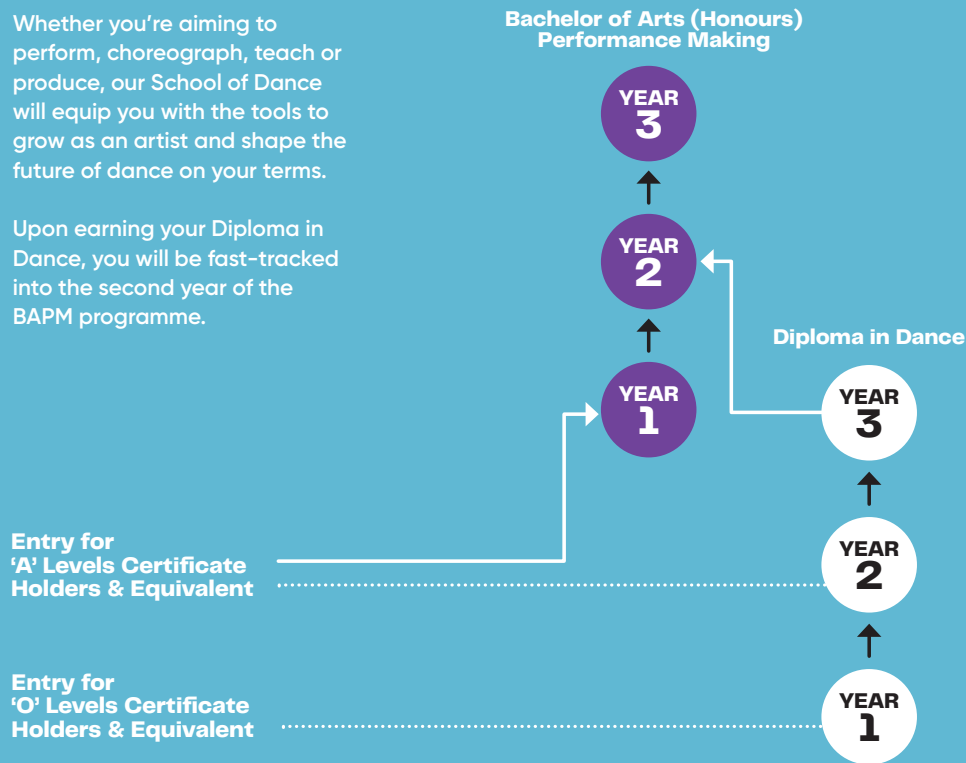

For the driven, the disciplined and the dreamers who see movement as more than form. Dance is the threshold to new performance possibilities and professional pathways. This is where you begin.

more information

Where Can We Take You?

Whether you're aiming to perform, choreograph, teach or produce, our School of Dance will equip you with the tools to grow as an artist and shape the future of dance on your terms.

Upon earning your Diploma in Dance, you will be fast-tracked into the second year of the BAPM programme.

A Stage Shaped By Your Expression

Why Choose NAFA | School of Dance

Develop Excellence and Artistic Depth

Guided by an international faculty of acclaimed artist-educators, you will hone your technique through conservatory-style training while sharpening your creative and critical thinking. Cross-disciplinary and cross-cultural learning prepares you to navigate an evolving dance landscape with authenticity, artistry and confidence.

Collaborate Across Disciplines and Communities

Learn from experts across diverse disciplines, cultural, and artistic practices. Through interdisciplinary projects and community-engaged work, you will develop the adaptability and collaborative mindset essential for today's multifaceted dance world.

FIND OUT MORE

Experience Intercultural and Global Dance Practices

Move fluidly between contemporary, classical, and traditional forms.

With overseas immersions, international festivals, and partnerships with global institutions, you will broaden your artistic horizons and cultivate true intercultural fluency as a developing dance artist.

Build Creative Courage for a Multi-Portfolio Future

From performance to choreography, teaching, and production, the programme equips you for a dynamic range of dance careers. Industry-relevant modules, authentic performance opportunities, and strong professional networks ensure you transition seamlessly into the creative industries – ready to shape dance futures.

Diploma in Dance

Empowering Purposeful, Versatile Artists for Tomorrow

This three-year diploma develops you as a technically proficient, critically engaged, and creatively versatile dance artist. Through rigorous studio practice, choreographic exploration, collaboration, research, and performance, you will cultivate the physicality, artistry, and imagination essential for today's evolving dance landscape.

The Programme Offers:

- Excellent Technical and Artistic Foundations
Train intensively across contemporary, classical, and traditional forms, guided by experienced international faculty who mentor your development as a well-rounded dance artist.
- Interdisciplinary and Collaborative Learning
Work with peers from theatre, music, design, and visual arts, gaining new perspectives and expanding the scope of your creative language.
- Performance Opportunities and International Exposure
Engage in showcases, collaborations, and festivals that mirror professional dance environments and build real-world confidence.
- A Seamless Pathway to Advanced Study
Progress into the BA (Honours) Performance Making programme or other degree-level training with the foundation needed to grow as a dance professional in creative industries.

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Performance Making

Make Performance. Make Possibilities. Across Disciplines.

This degree cultivates dance innovators who are ready to contribute to regional and global performance cultures. Through embodied practice, creative experimentation, and real-world projects, you'll develop a distinctive artistic voice while engaging closely with professional arts organisations locally and internationally.

Graduate as a versatile, future-ready performance-maker – equipped to work across performance, education, and the wider creative industries.

The Programme Offers:

- Discipline-Focused Performance Training
Develop strong technical and artistic foundations in Dance or Theatre through rigorous, practice-led training.
- Industry-Embedded Learning
Collaborate with leading arts organisations and work on professional-standard public productions.
- Interdisciplinary Creation at the Core
Devise original works through collaborative, performance making.
- Cultural Immersion in a Global City
Engage with Singapore's vibrant arts ecology and Southeast Asian performance.
- Exclusive UAL–NAFA International Placement
Take part in a five-week London placement with University of the Arts London students.

