DEVELOPING THE MUSICIANS OF TOMORROW

WHY MUSIC?

In keeping with the NAFA spirit of creativity, exploration and resilience, the Faculty of Performing Arts, School of Music, continues the strong legacy of our founders, constantly challenging and supporting our students and staff to reach new frontiers in our practice. Through practice-led and industry-focused training, you will leave our halls with unparalleled aptitude, attitude and performing experience to take centre-stage in the fast-evolving performing arts landscape.

Train under renowned professional musicians, researchers and pedagogues from all over the world, whose experience spans different genres, cultures and continents.

Benefit from our extensive network in Singapore and international conservatories, enhancing your practical skills and knowledge through performances, attachments, and immersions for your career development.

Expand your musical knowledge through contextualized lessons and the exploration of historical performance practices and instruments like harpsichord and fortepiano, while engaging in multidisciplinary collaborations across various art forms.

INTERNSHIP & INDUSTRY COLLABORATIONS

Our practice-led and industry-based environment offers regional and international music students a nurturing environment to study and perform. In addition to regular performance opportunities on campus at the Lee Foundation Theatre, you can look forward to additional performance projects and events at renowned venues such as the Victoria Concert Hall, Esplanade Concourse and Esplanade Recital Studio.

Supported by our strong links with professional arts organisations in Singapore and renowned music conservatoires like the Royal College of Music in London and the Central Conservatory of Music in Beijing, you can seize internship placements at or collaborate with the best locally and internationally.

STUDENT LIFE

Dive into the NAFA life—where learning meets fun!

At NAFA, student life is an invigorating blend of learning, self-expression and fun. From the NAFA Makers’ Market to International Student’s Night, our lively calendar keeps your campus life engaging and exciting. Join student-led clubs, such as the Basketball Club and K-Pop Dance Club to bond with like-minded peers and network within the creative student community. Through our Student Leader Training Camp, you will gain leadership skills and become role models within our community.

OVERSEAS ENGAGEMENT

Immerse in enriching experiences with our student exchange programmes and international collaborative projects for expanded classroom learning. You will gain an international perspective and insights from visiting professors and artistes from all over the world through regular masterclasses, workshops, lectures, residencies online classes as well as specialist support.

As a final-year Bachelor of Music (Honours) or Bachelor of Education (Honours) in Instrumental & Vocal Teaching student, you will spend seven weeks at London’s Royal College of Music. Those specialising in Chinese instruments will spend 10 weeks at Beijing’s Central Conservatory of Music. At both placements, you will engage in lessons and gain performing opportunities in orchestras and ensembles.

STUDENT VOICES

Erlyn Alexander

Alumna
Diploma in Music

I spent close to 15 hours in classes and practicing daily, so NAFA was like a second home to me. We often had friendly competitions, which pushed us to become better. No matter the outcome, the NAFA family was always there to support one another through successes and even failures. If you are planning to come here, the NAFA family will always welcome you!

Danielle Ong Min Lee

Alumna
Bachelor of Music (Honours)

Music is extremely versatile, and through NAFA, I gained from my peers' experiences and cultivated my own ideas and methods to teach and learn. We had experienced countless failures and triumphs together as a section, and most importantly, seen each other grow from amateurs to professionals. This camaraderie carried me through and made me the person and musician I am today!

Teo Ya Qi

Alumna
Diploma in Music Teaching

I pursued my passion and woke up every morning feeling motivated to become a better me. I found myself fully immersed in music and decided to pursue my dream at NAFA. Being Singapore's pioneer arts education institution, it provided a holistic experience, and the biggest gain was the friendships I had forged with people who love music just as much as me. They were the ones who picked me up at my lowest and completed this journey with me together.

Lee Wen Xiang

Alumnus
Bachelor of Education (Honours) in Instrumental & Vocal Teaching

NAFA's curriculum enhanced my teaching through real-life examples and developing a teaching portfolio, prompting deeper reflection on teaching methods. At RCM, I gained insights into effective music teaching techniques, witnessed professional conduct, and adopted a systematic, positive approach. Both experiences have profoundly influenced my current teaching practice.
