Trainer's Profile

Gin Chua

Gin has been in the industry for 6 years and works with different retail brands locally to create floral arrangements regularly. She also does bespoke arrangements for her freelance clients.

Holding a first-class honours bachelor's degree in Fashion Design and Textiles at Lasalle College of the Arts. She started her career in the apparel industry as a fashion designer. Her interest in flowers grew, and she began her journey as a floral designer through freelancing. Being a self-taught floral designer, she does not limit herself to imagination and often comes up with unconventional ways to assemble her blooms.

Apart from floristry, Gin is also talented in other creative aspects like apparel design, graphics, and art fundamentals. She also uses her free time to teach classes for young creatives at Art studios, exploring different mediums.
