Trainer's Profile – Guoliang Lee

Guoliang Lee is a Music Educator in Singapore with over 15 years of teaching experience. He holds a Diploma in Music Performance (Guitar) from LASALLE College of the Arts and a Bachelor of Arts (Psychology) degree from James Cook University. As a guitarist, he performs extensively at events. Some of his notable performances include performances with “Freefall”, a Touch community band, “H20six”, a local Chinese pop band, and “Juz-B”, a local A Cappella group.

Guoliang has also performed in numerous community and corporate events, in addition to being a guest performer at Yamaha’s festivals and events. In 2016, Guoliang emerged as Champion in the Sungha Jung Guitar Competition held in Singapore and performed as the opening act for Sungha Jung Live in Singapore. In 2020, he was appointed Ambassador of Yamaha Guitars by Yamaha Music Singapore.

Guoliang’s passion for teaching music began when he was a second-year student at LASALLE College of the Arts. He has since turned his passion into a career and continues to hone his skills daily through teaching and practising. Having taught in a wide array of places and classroom settings, he continues to find satisfaction in reaching out to people all over Singapore through Music.
